HAPPY NEW YEAR

DARNELL SECURCHER – PRESIDENT

What a busy and fun time of year. I never think I'll get my shopping done but somehow I always pull through. It's also an eventful time. Last Sunday, we had our Wakefield Women's Club, "Candlelight Ball," and it seems it was successful. Linda Wymer headed up a great committee and even though she couldn't be with us, we were in great hands. Thanks to everyone especially Dee Cecchetti who stepped in and put the final touches on the gala over the last two weeks. Everyone had input into our music and I think we'd still be dancing if we could have talked Paul Fitts into it.

We also want to thank Sue Rose, for putting together our annual Holiday lunch. It's become a tradition for us to host the North Carolina Theater and as usual, they did not disappoint. The two young van Venrooy sisters who came to sing were wonderful to listen to and our sing-along was surprisingly in-tune possibly due to the fact that I was taking their picture at the time.

Looking ahead to our new year we can look forward to Dr. Gorelesky from Wake Forest to talk to us in January. Dr. Gorelesky is a chiropractor, acupuncturist and somewhat of a memory-loss expert. I'm thinking of signing up but I fear that would be a full-time job for him. Now, where was I.....?

Our board is planning two events for February. Our luncheon will feature a wine and chocolate tasting program and two of our members, Regina Heroux and Dyanne Matzkevich are busy planning a special evening for Valentine's Day, so be sure and watch your calendar for that event.

The Wakefield Women's Club is a very generous organization throughout the year but we were especially giving this year first in November when Kathy Clark collected so many toys and gifts for Interact and in December for collecting food for the Wake Forest Pantry.

Although our lives are especially hectic this time of year, I want to take time out to be thankful for all the many blessings I have and one of them is the support and thoughtfulness I have received from all of you. Have a healthy, happy New Year and see you in January.

SUE ROSE – 1ST VICE-PRESIDENT

We look forward to seeing you at some of our terrific events coming up in 2012!

KATHY CLARK – COMMUNITY

Ladies, please allow me to introduce a wonderful local charity called READ AND FEED.

Their concept is to combine a mobile classroom, a child friendly atmosphere, books, food, and tutors to motivate children to become confident in their academic skills so they have every opportunity to succeed in adult life.

Over 35% of Wake County students enrolled in Grades 1—5 are from low-income, working families. Of these students, fewer than 50% can read at grade level. To bridge this gap, Read and Feed provides low-income families with the most basic of resources: food, books and tutoring assistance.

Through the Feed the Reader Road Show, an RV is driven to low income neighborhoods - bringing food and books and encouraging parent and child to read together. Read and Feed is able to motivate children, ages five to ten, to become confident in their academic skills so that they have every opportunity to succeed in adult life.

We will be collecting the following supplies at our January luncheon:

- 1 wide ruled single subject notebook
- 1 2-pocket folder
- 1 12 inch ruler
- 1 24 count package of crayons
- 1 Elmer's pencil bag (available at Wal-Mart. Elmer's brand lasts the longest.)

In the pencil bag:

- 3 #2 pencils
- 1 "fun" pencil
- 3 pencil top erasers
- 1 large eraser
- 1 pencil sharpener
- 1 glue stick

Please feel free to contact Kati Mullen, Read and Feed (919-538-3840) for more information. You may also contact Kathy Clark ( 919-412-9091) for more info. She will be collecting all supplies at the January luncheon.

Thank you for your support.

Anyone wishing to donate sooner can drop it off Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Food Pantry is located on E. Holding Ave in Wake Forest
