Newsletter Serving Wakefield and Surrounding Communities

Top O'the Morning to You and Happy St. Paddy's Day

I first heard about ONE CHIC MAMA when I went to Youthology and saw her cards on the desk. Dr. Lisa Hogan's staff was very enthusiastic about her and said she was fabulous! Then The News & Observer started printing articles about her in their Style Section. Curious, Barb and I even attended a seminar she held in Apex to check her out for ourselves!

I'm proud to introduce Michele Little as our March Speaker...

Image Consultant and Style Expert, Michele Little, is passionate about helping women around the world discover their authentic beauty and embrace their personal style. As founder and CEO of One Chic Mama she works closely with her clients to define a signature style that brings out their very best.

It takes more than Irish luck to be a successful image consultant. Drawing on more than 20 years experience in the fashion industry, Michele became a certified Image Consultant in 2008. She has worked with celebrities and women in the spotlight, but her true passion lies in helping 'real' women discover how they can look gorgeous! She believes that all women are beautiful and loves to see a clients' face light up when she discovers that she is, too!

She has a really cute website: www.OneChicMama.com. Check it out and then join us at the March luncheon to hear her for yourself. Don't leave your image to just luck!

Upcoming WWC Board Member Election

If you've been thinking about or are interested in becoming a WWC board member, there are still positions open to nominate for 2011-2012. Anyone interested in becoming more involved, helping to move our club forward, and getting to know members better should consider putting their name forward for an open position. Also, if you know another member you think would do a good job on the board, please encourage her to come into the running as well. Contact Doris May or

Brenda Treece. (see #'s at right)

Board Elections will be held at the April luncheon.

Member Spotlight—Letha Nufer, Newsletter Editor

Letha was born and bred in Western NC but has been a Raleigh citizen since 1984. She graduated from NCSU with a BS in Computer Science and put her degree to use right away working to develop the Hospital Information System at Rex Hospital. Letha married co-worker, Rex Nufer, (yes, Rex from Rex) in 1991 and then moved on to Quintiles Inc., developing systems in support of clinical trials. She has been involved in helping obtain FDA approval for many new drugs, including the first marketed drug for Alzheimers. Also, she spent 4 years in Quintiles Quality Assurance.

In 2000, Letha decided to take a break from corporate life and pursued her passion for beautiful home interiors by opening her own small design business. Seeing happy clients brought Letha much satisfaction, but with the economic decline, she decided to return to a more steady industry. She feels fortunate to have been welcomed back to Quintiles in 2010 where she manages quality and compliance in project management.

Along the way, Letha and Rex had 3 daughters: Lauren, age 16 and athletic; Delaney, age 13 and artistic; and Joslin, age 10, athletic and musically inclined. All 3 bring her more joy than she ever imagined. She and Rex are looking forward to celebrating their 20th anniversary in May by attending the Kentucky Derby.

Letha joined WWC in 2005 and has served the past 2 years as Editor for the WWC Newsletter. She has especially enjoyed the creative outlet this position offers. For anyone interested in filling the position for 2011-2012, the software is easy to learn and the board members support you all the way. They are a fantastic group of women, dedicated to WWC!

Community Service Update

Eleven Members of the WWC volunteered to man the phones for the MIX 101.5 WRAL FM Radiothon to help raise money for Duke Children's Hospital. The radiothon ran for three days, February 15 - 17, and raised more than $1,200,000. For more details about the event go to www.dukechildrens.org/giving/events/radiothon. Our members working the phones included the following:

- Rosemary Butterfield
- Vickie Canavan
- Dee Cecchetti
- Marguerite Grimm
- MaryAnn Grote, WWC organizer
- Dyanne Matzkevich
- Doris May

Pictured here are 4 of the ladies manning the phones setup in the lobby of the McGovern-Davison Children's Health Center.

- Cher Romaine
- Sue Rose
- Brenda Treece
- Ana Bela Zeitler

They were also joined by Lucille Dwyer, Vickie's friend. Ladies, you represented WWC well and made us proud! We thank you for your efforts.

After their hard work, the group of 11 enjoyed dining out together.

St. Patrick's Day is an enchanted time - a day to begin transforming winter's dreams into summer's magic.
